1987.1 and 2025.420(b) and is based on the grounds that, among other things, revealing the identities of Topix's users violates the constitutional protection guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and the Subpoena is grossly overbroad and calls for information that is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence

Topix's motion is based upon this Notice of Motion and Motion, the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Separate Statement, the Declaration of Philip P. Keating, the Declaration of Emily Williams Hurley and the Court's entire file in this matter, the arguments presented at the hearing on this motion, and on such further evidence as the Court may find proper.
